

A reflection from the Pastor

Peace. "You are not far from the kingdom of God" Jesus tells the scribe in today's gospel. Can you imagine hearing those words? It is what St. Paul speaks of so well – "I have run the good race, I have fought the good fight." Persistence is the key to a fulfilled life. Jesus knew he was not far from realizing the kingdom of his Father – through his own approaching death on the cross. And so his command of how to love is exactly that – the sign of the cross. When we make that sign of our salvation we do what Jesus said to love God with all our mind (in the name of the Father), all our heart (and of the Son), and all our strength (and of the Holy Spirit); and we too open our arms as an extension of that cross as we reach out to one another – dying to the world around us so that God might say to us: "you are not far from the kingdom." I invite you in this week to sit with the cross – each time you make that sign over your body – think about what the Lord asks of you - - and the kingdom will be closer than you can ever imagine.

On a pastoral note:

The new confessional is up and ready. Please remember when you enter to close the door and choose either face to face or behind the curtain. I have placed a paper on the entrance bulletin board on "How to Make a Good Confession."

Next, the work begins on readying the space for the Manger scene and beyond. I may be calling on you, so stay near your phones!

I will be away for a bit of a vacation Monday November 13th through Friday November 17th. No liturgies are scheduled for these weekdays. If you have a pastoral emergency, please phone Deacon Fred at 897- 1955 or his cellular phone 676-2953. If there is need for the last rites or a funeral, I have asked Fr. Gabriel from St. Mary's in Victoria to preside. His phone number is 573-4328. Pray for me as I take this small travel break and respite.

Have a blessed week, Fr. Ty

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

At the direction of Pope Benedict XVI, extraordinary ministers of holy Communion will no longer be permitted to assist in the purification of the sacred vessels at Masses in the United States. The U.S. bishops had asked the Vatican to extend an indult -- or church permission -- in effect since 2002 allowing extraordinary ministers of holy Communion to help cleanse the Communion cups and plates when there were not enough priests or deacons to do so.

As I had mentioned in our training session, this was still waiting for a question from Pope Benedict.

What does it mean for us? As we have been doing, please, following the celebration of the Mass, please leave the vessels on the sacristy table and I will purify them. Por favor, despues de la misa, deje las tazas en la tabla de la sacristía y las purificaré.

Please know that your ministry is still vital and I appreciate it much. Sepa por favor que el su ministerio sigue siendo vital y aprecio mucho.

Remembering All Souls

In a particular way, in the month of November we remember all the faithful departed. The Church firmly believes that we should pray for the dead and remember them, because death is not the end of life, but only a new beginning. In order to remember our beloved dead, please sign the names of those who have died and whom you would like to pray for. This book will be located on the stand at the door of the baptistry – our gateway to life in Christ.

Lawn Maintenance Crew
