

A reflection from the Pastor

Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. There is a natural human tendency to preserve and extend life. Think about all of the doctors and remedies and things our bodies go through to make them last a little longer. And yet, Jesus turns that thinking on its head: if you want to find your life, then you must lose it for the sake of Christ. What is Jesus speaking of? Of course, he wants us to live – and live well by loving God and our neighbor. But he also wants us to feed our souls for our eternal life. Do we take as much time feeding our souls daily as we do our bodies? If you answered no, then that's something to think about trying tomorrow, or even today. To lose our lives, means to focus on Jesus in every moment, nourishing our souls, by reading his Word, receiving His Sacraments, praying, and making good decisions. Let us
