A reflection from the Pastor

Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" We witness this encounter in today's gospel in which Peter is walking on water. There is a tendency, like Peter to take our eyes off the Lord, and as soon as we do, we sink into the mire of the world. When we look to wealth, feeding addictions, improper moral conduct, and take our eyes off of Jesus, we begin to sink and falter. But if we stay focused, then like Peter, we can say: "Truly you are the Son of God." It takes a lot of people to get to the point of dying to make that profession. Don't wait. Make it now and live it now.
