

A reflection from the Pastor

Peace. Some time ago I was speaking with a friend and he asked if I knew someone. My immediate response was well, maybe a little, but I responded by saying, no I really don't know him. I have thought a lot about that in the past months – how well do we really know people? Do we know them because they look nice on the outside, or maybe because of their wealthy lifestyle, or maybe because of what they can do for us? People in Jesus' day looked to the scribes and Pharisees because they knew the law – they looked good from the outside, they had a good life and good things, and they did things for them – but as we hear in the gospel it is not always about the externals that matters – their hearts were far from the Lord. For when we focus on them, we miss the person and we fail to know them as God has created them.

And that brings us to think about our relationship with our God. How well do we know him? Is it a one hour a week relationship or is it minute by minute – growing in love with our God and his Son our Lord Jesus Christ? Take some time each day this week to praise God for his life in you. If you find yourself focusing on others by what you see on the outside, take a moment and look them in the eyes and view their soul and care for them.

Please note the financial statement in this edition. While there is a little wiggle room, we mustn't get too comfortable – we need to do really well at the Turkey Dinner! Have a blessed week. - Fr. Ty

Remembering September 11, 2001 – A Prayer for Healing

Come, Holy Spirit of Love and Peace, We long for your healing touch.

On September 11, 2001, Our country was scarred
By hatred and revenge...
We long for your healing touch.

Hearts were broken and lives were lost, And fear and anger prevailed...
We long for your healing touch.

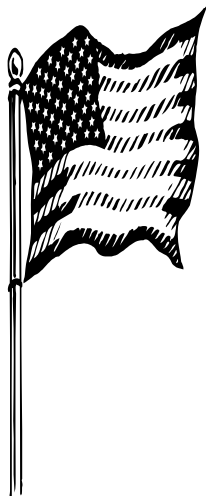

Awaken in us, Holy Spirit, A deep and respectful remembrance...
That you are a God of love, not hatred, That you are a God of forgiveness, not revenge,
That you are a God of peace, not war.

Remembering these things, we ask you to Bless our country and all those defending
Its ideals of freedom and liberty And bring them safely home.

May your gifts of peace, love, and forgiveness Transform our hatred, anger, and fear,
So that peace on earth will be possible once again.

Come, Holy Spirit of Love and Peace,
We long for your healing touch.

Amen.
