The Guadalupanas will be holding a Mother's Day bake sale next weekend after all Masses.

thank you, parish family!

The Spring BBQ and Festival has finally, and successfully, passed. Based on the past four year's numbers, we decided to be a little more realistic in our planning and instead of shooting for 1000 plates and having leftovers, we set the goal at 800-850 and ended up selling 872 plates. As we had such a rush due to the immense orders from the Plants which we could not have foreseen or gambled on, we did have to turn away a handful of people due to having served all of the food by noon. If we had prepared for 1000 we would have still had too many leftovers, and if the Plant orders would not have come, we really would have been in a mess. All in all, a great deal of gratitude is owed to all those of the parish family who so generously offered their time, talent and treasure in making this event a success. Through your generosity and devotion we were able to pay off the remainder of our property insurance premium: $10,000. Your love for your parish is evident and will be blessed!

planning ahead...

Our 2005 Turkey Dinner is set for the last Sunday in September—the 25th (the Spring Festival will be April 30, 2006, the last Sunday in April). Please make a note on your calendars and in courtesy to the needs of our parish, try to avoid scheduling other events (parties, baby showers, receptions, etc.) for the same weekend. We need these fundraisers to meet our annual financial obligations. Through avoiding scheduling conflicts, it allows more freedom to accomplish our task. In the past few years the parishes in the Victoria Deanery have worked at not scheduling major events the same day out of respect for each parish's individual needs. Now we must ask our parish family for the same consideration.
