pro-life thought

A man, even if seriously ill or disabled in the exercise of his highest functions, is and always will be a man, and he will never become a “vegetable” or an “animal.”...The loving gaze of God the Father continues to fall upon them, acknowledging them as his sons and daughters, especially in need of help.

John Paul II, 3-20-04

it's that time of year again...

It is soon approaching for my summer studies to begin yet again, and therefore my return to Washington, D.C. If you have any needs of the parish office this would be the week to get them accomplished. During the summer months, at least through the beginning of August, the summer schedule will pretty much be the same as it has for the past three years.

This will be my last year of fulltime classroom. It will complete the required four semesters of classes/credits and allow me to advance to the next step...that of writing my license thesis and taking oral comprehensive exams (summer 2006). The classes I will be taking this summer are concerning procedural law, ecumenism, marriage law, and the laws of the Church concerning aspects of Church governance above the diocesan level (archdioceses, national bishops' conferences, Roman Congregations, dicasteries, etc.) It promises to be another busy and intense summer.

This is an inconvenience for the parish family, as I am well aware, but these past few summers have proven that we can adapt and be flexible when called upon. If a need should arise during my absence, you should contact Deacon Soto, Jeanne Lange or Ismael Perez.
