

A reflection from the Pastor

Peace. John the Baptizer went preaching "Prepare the way of the Lord. Make straight his paths." We can only imagine how the people received him - let alone the Lord. And yet the message remained true: "prepare the way." The majority of our lives is spent trying to find the way to many things. The world projects that one should find the way to power, riches, and fame. But ultimately at the head of these is happiness. We live so that we might prepare the way to meet the one who gave us life, God. Jesus is the way to all happiness, he is the way to all truth. Preparing the way in our own day means putting aside all those obstacles that get in the way of truly knowing him. What are those obstacles? Well they may be the little addictions, anxieties, or rejections of life that keep us from focusing on him and have us focus on ourselves.

This season of God's grace invites us to prepare the way of the Lord like John - he didn't focus on himself, rather he pointed to Jesus and his message. Let us try to do that also. Make an effort his week to mention Jesus in your speech and in your actions. Then you will truly find the way to happiness.

Lectors:

Please remember that the new lector workbooks in English and Spanish are in the Sacristy bookshelf. Please take some time to come by and read over the readings before you proclaim. If you need any help, let me know.

Have a blessed week,
Fr. Ty

On the Lighter Side

Six year old Angie and her four-year old brother Joel were sitting together in church. Joel giggled, sang and talked out loud. Finally, his big sister had had enough. "You're not supposed to talk out loud in church." Why? "Who's going to stop me?" Joel asked. Angie pointed to the back of the church and said, "See those two men standing by the door? They're hushers."
