Four Stages of Marriage

The four stages of marriage are: (1) Romance, (2) Disillusionment, (3) Misery, and (4) Awakening. Many marriages experience the first three stages. Marriages that end in dicorce never make it to the fourth stage of Awakening. Don't give up without learning about the fourth stage of Awakening. If your marriage suffers from Disillusionment or Misery please contact Retrovaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i). For confidential information about, or to register for the September program beginning with the weekend of September 1-3 call 800-470-2230 or email: lbconner@sbcglobal.net or visit the website at www.retrovaille.org.

Welcome, Fr Ty!!!

This week we the parish welcomes its new pastor, Fr. Ty Bazar, to the community. Give him time to unpack, setup and get settled. This is an exciting time for the parish!

Church Cleaning reminder

Just a note of reminder to all of our church cleaners...please only turn on the flourescent lights when cleaning and the two switches for the sanctuary floods. Do not use the switches/breakers in the breaker cabinets located in the hallway leading to the rectory, as due to their setup and age, sometimes the wrong switches are turned off/on and affect other power supplies.

Encourage Vocation Awareness

Each Catholic family can do its part to encourage vocation awareness in the youth. Through continued prayer for vocations and by recommending serious thought about priestly and consecrated vocations to the children is a simple way that builds a vocation culture. A religious vocation begins in the home—amongst the family—and is regularly nourished through the sacramentla life of the faith.

It is with gratitude and appreciation that I bid St. Patrick's farewell this week. It does not escape me the immense work so many of you have done in my absences these past five summers to keep things going well. In no small way you have assisted me in obtaining the degree I finally earned. As well--the many, many parish family members who have pitched in with CCD, festivals/fundraising efforts, yardwork, maintenance, cleaning, parish organizations, landscaping upkeep, and the projects that have been undertaken these past years. The parish complex is a true beauty in our area—and the subject of many compliments from visitors—all owed to your generosity and hard work. It should be a source of pride for all of us—a place that is welcoming, hospitable, and whose family is marked by generosity of time, talent and treasure in their devotion to God and His Church. A new era commences for all of us! Hopefully, memories of our times together will be merciful.
