A Letter from Father Ty

My beloved brothers and sisters in the Lord, peace.

It is with great joy that I greet you as your resident priest, soon to be officially installed as your pastor this Saturday. My move in went very well. I appreciate all of your generosity and welcome.

You will learn more about me personally as the days go on, but I will give you a brief synopsis now. I was born in Victoria, January 27, 1973. My parents are Ernest and Jamie Bazar. After hearing a most persistent call from the Lord to serve as priest, I entered the collegiate seminary in Irving, Texas, in January 1994, receiving my Bachelor Degree in Psychology in 1997. I then took up my theological studies at the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. where I earned my S.T.B. degree in theology. I was ordained a priest at my home parish of Our Lady of Victory in Victoria on June 1, 2002

My prayer for our parish is that we continue to grow and deepen our faith in the Lord. That is why I am here, to be in the person of Christ as your guide in the ways of the faith, morals, and the discipline of the Church. As pastor, I have been appointed to care for your souls and I will do my utmost to provide for their salvation. Everything that we do, must be inspired with that confidence and have Christ as our direction.

This week, I would like to meet with those who assist with the pastoral care and formation of the parish, please note the schedule of meetings. Thank you.

Finally, let us continue to pray for one another as we work to build his kingdom,

Sincerely,

The Reverend Ty Joseph Bazar
