

A reflection from the Pastor

Peace. "What were you arguing about on the way?" Jesus asks the disciples this question. He already knew they were making claims as to who was the greatest. In reality, he asks us to look interiorly at the same matter. In our own lives, what do we so focus on, arguing and worrying and putting down others over – that we miss out on the moments to let God work in our lives?

Today's festival is a great opportunity and example of what it means to come together and work for a common goal. This festival as I have said, is great about raising money, but it also can be an exercise in sharing our love for the Lord with one another.

Let us work toward that and let us pray for one another. Have a blessed week, - Fr. Ty
