

A reflection from the Pastor

Peace. "Neither do I condemn you, go and sin no more" Jesus speaking to the woman caught in adultery. What beautiful words - Jesus telling this woman whose life seemed over that he did not condemn her. It is a great lesson to us that if we stay close to Jesus, there is always the possibility of new life. As we draw closer into the passion of our Lord, focus on his words and actions before he went to the cross. Just like today, they were so powerful, and yet the cross would bring a power beyond words - our salvation!

The Saint Patrick's Day celebration was a great success, thanks to all who helped. Many of you came and viewed and identified memories of the past. Also the pot luck supper, with the sea of green food was a delight. Congratulations to those who won the trivia prizes: Longest married (present): Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Lamas Sr. - 60 years; Besides the rosary in 1960 what else was stolen? Fr. Gino's 2 suitcases and $2 - answered by Aurora Cabral, Youngest Parish member present: Emma Koch. Pastor who went door to door asking to bless marriages? Fr. Steubben - answered by Minnie Chacon. What country was St. Patrick from? Great Britain - answered by Loren Gonzales.

Please note that the Holy Week schedule of ministers is in this weekend. Please be attentive to times and practices. Also pick up your assigned readings in the sacristy. It will make them truly inspiring liturgies.

May you have a blessed week.

Fr. Ty

Why are the Statues draped? As an outward expression of our inner sorrow as we reflect more deeply on the suffering of Jesus the Christ. In a way, they lose importance in the face of His suffering. They will remain veiled until Holy Saturday.
