A reflection from the Pastor

Peace.

Today we celebrate the birth of the Church, Pentecost. Jesus who suffered and died for us, was taken up into heaven body and soul forty days after his Resurrection from the dead. After his Ascension, He promised to send the Advocate - the Consoler - the Holy Spirit to be with us and guide us in the ways of Truth. That is what Pentecost is all about, the gift of the Holy Spirit to the world, and the fulfillment of Jesus' promise, I will not leave you orphans.

And so we rejoice that we have been given such a power to guide us in the world. We who have been graced with the Spirit and baptism, and confirmed in the Spirit at confirmation should make it our aim to keep alive the mission of Jesus by making the gospel alive in our hearts, our families, and our lives.

Please be aware that I am looking for volunteers and feedback on Vacation Bible School. I would like to offer five mornings during July for grades 1-5. Let me know if you are interested in assisting.

Also, in the month of June, I will be hosting regular planning sessions for the implementation of our new curriculum for the Religious Education Program. Please follow the bulletin for more information.

May you have a blessed and holy week.
Fr. Ty

V. THE SPIRIT AND THE CHURCH IN THE LAST DAYS

Pentecost

731 On the day of Pentecost when the seven weeks of Easter had come to an end, Christ's Passover is fulfilled in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, manifested, given, and communicated as a divine person: of his fullness, Christ, the Lord, pours out the Spirit in abundance.[122]

732 On that day, the Holy Trinity is fully revealed. Since that day, the Kingdom announced by Christ has been open to those who believe in him: in the humility of the flesh and in faith, they already share in the communion of the Holy Trinity. By his coming, which never ceases, the Holy Spirit causes the world to enter into the "last days," the time of the Church, the Kingdom already inherited though not yet consummated. We have seen the true Light, we have received the heavenly Spirit, we have found the true faith: we adore the indivisible Trinity, who has saved us.[123]

736 By this power of the Spirit, God's children can bear much fruit. He who has grafted us onto the true vine will make us bear "the fruit of the Spirit: . . . love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control." [129] "We live by the Spirit"; the more we renounce ourselves, the more we "walk by the Spirit." [130] Through the Holy Spirit we are restored to paradise, led back to the Kingdom of heaven, and adopted as children, given confidence to call God "Father" and to share in Christ's grace, called children of light and given a share in eternal glory.[131]

MEMORIAL DAY 2007

We Remember

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Heavenly Father,
As we remember those who have made the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom, we think of how they have followed in the footsteps of your son, our Savior, Jesus Christ. Please hold our service men and women in your strong arms. Cover them with your sheltering grace and presence as they stand in the gap for our protection. We also remember the families of our troops, and ask for your unique blessings to fill their homes and your peace, provision and strength to fill their lives. May the members of our armed forces be filled with courage to face each day and may they trust in the Lord's mighty power to accomplish each task. Let our military brothers and sisters feel our love
