

A reflection from the Pastor

Peace.

“Brothers and sisters:
For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery,” Paul’s words to the Galatians in our second reading today.

This week we celebrate our nation’s independence and our own freedom. What does it mean for you to be free? What it meant to our forefathers might have been a totally different reality, but what does it mean to you, in 2007? It is a question to ponder both personally and in Christ. As Paul told the Galatians, for freedom Christ set us free. This means that his freedom by His death on the cross, allowed us to stand in a right relationship with God and enjoy freedom as his children. When we choose Christ, when we choose truth, and when we choose to follow the law of God, we are truly free.

Ask this week, what you need to let go of in your life to be truly free. Let God take it and make you free in Christ, and you will have a freedom that cannot be matched by the world.

May you have a blessed week.

Fr. Ty
