

A reflection from the Pastor

“The magi opened their treasures and offered Jesus gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.”

Gifts befitting a king, and yet Jesus' kingship was anything but ordinary. It is a reminder that all is gift. God gives us the gift of life and allows us the ability to choose how to re-gift its many blessings. This new year of 2008 is great time to gift our hearts to the Lord, and truly love one another. A commitment to returning God's gift of love a little each day is a wonderful way to open our treasures.

I pray that this year of grace, 2008 will be marked with many special blessings for you and your families. No doubt there will be some moments that try our faith, but let us look to the light of Christ's revelation to the world – his Epiphany and see the glory that awaits us.

One sad note thus far for the parish, this past week two of the outdoor nativity scene figures were stolen; Mary and Baby Jesus. We pray that those responsible will have the heart to bring them back. I will continue to keep the buildings locked and revisit the weekday security detail.

May you have a blessed week.+

Fr. Ty

Second Sunday Coffee and Donuts

There will be coffee and donuts following both Masses next Sunday in the Heritage Room. A chance for fellowship and conversation. All are invited.

Family Donations for 2007 Income Tax

If you would like a report of the donations given by your family for income tax purposes, please contact the parish office and I will prepare a copy for you. Due to the number of families and paper/ mailing expense, I would rather print these on a need basis. Thank you.
