

A reflection from the Pastor

"I will not reject anyone who comes to me," Jesus in today's gospel. These words of Jesus occur in the midst of his "Bread of Life Discourse." Jesus has just revealed that he is the "Bread of Life." These are words that people naturally want to hear. No one wants to be rejected from heaven, let alone on earth. But in many ways, many people live as though they do not know Jesus. The violence and inhumanity that happens on a daily basis, especially that which is reported on television and other media, is hopefully a minority when it comes to those who go to Jesus.

As pastor, I pray that each day you examine your conscience and ask how you have either grown or missed the mark on getting closer to Jesus. Each of us must make this examination. When we do, and when we rely on the strength of the Lord in the day to come, then we do change the world around us, and as Jesus says, we shall be raised on the last day.

As we prepare to vote on Tuesday, and what happens after, let us not forget that we always look to the Lord to raise us up and give us strength. It has to begin with Him

BUILDING FUND NOTE

The building fund is collected monthly to assist in the maintenance of our parish buildings. As with all structures, the church and the six other buildings on the parish campus require regular maintenance. An example of continued maintenance, after twenty five years, this summer the interior of the church and exterior of the church and all buildings were painted totaling over $23,000. In addition, we are required to pay property insurance expenses, which this year totaled $11,000. Thank you for your generous and continued support of the building fund.
