

A reflection from the Pastor

Jesus answered the Jews and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." This line from today's gospel in which we celebrate the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome is one that reminds us that the Church is built of living stones and Jesus is the capstone that holds it together. He was of course speaking about his own body when he addressed the Jews, just after he had driven out of the temple those who would turn it into a marketplace.

Today, and each day, we should ask ourselves, how have we used the temple of our body. Have we preserved and filled it with holy things, or do we allow our eyes to look at those things that would pervert our soul, and so drive out the Lord. If we truly are being built into the heavenly Jerusalem, then we must not profane the temple of our bodies. Let us this week seek to practice virtue and truly repent of our sins, for the Lord calls us to be with him in heaven for ever.

BUILDING FUND NOTE

The building fund is collected monthly to assist in the maintenance of our parish buildings. As with all structures, the church and the six other buildings on the parish campus require regular maintenance. An example of continued maintenance, after twenty five years, this summer the interior of the church and exterior of the church and all buildings were painted totaling over $23,000. In addition, we are required to pay property insurance expenses, which this year totaled $11,000. Thank you for your generous and continued support of the building fund.

Diocese of Victoria in Texas
25th Anniversary Books
On Sale

As you know, I put together this book to commemorate the first 25 years of the diocese. Each parish is featured with a color picture and other information, including a study of each of the patron saints of the parishes in the diocese.

Several have expressed interest, and I still have about thirteen of these books which make great gifts. The books are $32 each and checks may be made payable to Ty Bazar.

Please see me after Mass, the books will be available until they have sold out.

A NOTE ON THE LATERAN BASILICA

The Basilica of St. John Lateran (Italian: Basilica di San Giovanni in Laterano) is the cathedral of the church of Rome and the official ecclesiastical seat of the Bishop of Rome, who is the Pope. Officially named Archibasilica Sanctissimi Salvatoris et Sancti Iohannes Baptista et Evangelista in Laterano ("Archbasilica of the Most Holy Saviour, St. John Baptist and St. John the Evangelist at the Lateran", in Italian: "Arcibasilica del Santissimo Salvatore e Santi Giovanni Battista ed Evangelista in Laterano"),^[1] it is the oldest and ranks first (being the cathedral of Rome) among the four major basilicas of Rome, and holds the title of ecumenical mother church (mother church of the whole inhabited world) among Roman Catholics. An inscription on the façade, Christo Salvatore, dedicates the Lateran as Archbasilica of the Most Holy Saviour, for the cathedrals of all patriarchs are dedicated to Christ Himself. As the cathedral of the Bishop of Rome, containing the papal throne (Cathedra Romana), it ranks above all other churches in the Roman Catholic Church, even above St. Peter's Basilica in the Vatican.
