

A reflection from the Pastor

"For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the midst of them," Jesus in today's gospel. The operative part of this phrase of Jesus is, 'in my name'. Most often we gather because of our own agenda or in the name of something other than the Lord Jesus. If you attend most Church meetings, they begin with a prayer, asking that we remember the Lord and to invite Him into our midst. Families do this before they share a meal, even in public, couples do this as they make decisions for their family.

Jesus wants to dwell in the midst of us. This is why he sent the Spirit from and with the Father, to guide us on our pilgrim way. Sure, we may not always be perfect welcoming his name, but we should strive to turn away from sin and welcome Jesus who saves us from our sins.
