

A reflection from the Pastor

Today's celebration of All Saints, is a celebration of those men and women in Heaven; both declared by the Church, as well as those not known to us. Tomorrow's celebration of All Souls, begins our month long remembrance of all those who have gone before us. Indeed, these two celebrations invite us to take stock of where we are on our journey of faith. I invite you to take some time this month to visit the graves of your loved ones. Say an extra prayer for them each day. The vision of St. John from the book of Revelation today is a great starting point; he saw that great multitude of every race, language, and tongue before God crying out: "Salvation comes from our God, who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb." May we, like them, survive times of great distress, and wash away our sins, in the blood of the Lamb, who suffered, died, and rose so that we too might do the
