

A reflection from the Pastor

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds,' Jesus in today's gospel. These last weeks of ordinary time invite us to contemplate the end of times and Jesus' return. The world focuses on this event, but in a worldly way. The Christian is not to be worried about a date, year, or time; rather, the Christian is to store up now on God's goodness, as if this is the day, as if this is the time. Jesus gives us a clue as to how we are to know: his Word, which will never pass away is what we should meditate on day and night – so that our words become His.

Take some time this week as you prepare for the business of Thanksgiving and reflect on how ready you are for Christ's return. Maybe there is an attitude that needs some correction. Maybe there is someone who is in need of forgiveness or healing. Maybe you need a good confession. As we look forward to this new liturgical year, let us prepare our hearts to receive the Lord.

The Season of Advent

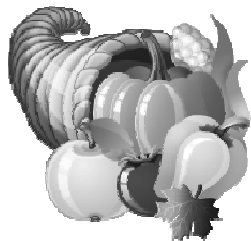

The new liturgical year begins with Evening Prayer 1 of the First Sunday of Advent. In this new year (Year C) the Sunday Gospel readings will come from St. Luke. The weekday lectionary will come from year two. The two-fold purpose of Advent is to prepare our hearts for Jesus' first coming at Christmas as we celebrate his birth on December 25th, and His second coming in glory. Let us prepare ourselves well. Maranatha! Come Lord Jesus, Come!

Advent Bible Study

Advent is soon approaching. In this Church proclaimed "Year of the Priest," I will be leading a four week biblical study of the priesthood. This will be a great opportunity to study the Word of God concerning this sacred ministry.

Classes will be each of the Mondays of Advent: November 30, December 7, 14, and 21 from 7:15 p.m. – 8:15 p.m. in the Heritage Room. No registration is required. Please bring a bible, pen, paper, and open heart.

Saint of the Week

Saint Elizabeth of Hungary, Religious

Born in 1207. Princess, the daughter of King Andrew of Hungary. Great-aunt of Saint Elizabeth of Portugal. She married Prince Louis of Thuringa at age 13. Built a hospital at the foot of the mountain on which her castle stood; tended to the sick herself. Her family and courtiers opposed this, but she insisted she could only follow Christ's teachings, not theirs. Once when she was taking food to the poor and sick, Prince Louis stopped her and looked under her mantle to see what she was carrying; the food had been miraculously changed to roses. Upon the death of Louis, Elizabeth sold all that she had, and worked to support her four children. Her gifts of bread to the poor, and of a large gift of grain to a famine stricken Germany, led to her patronage of bakers and related fields. She died in 1231 of natural causes. Her relics are in Vienna, Austria. St. Elizabeth is the patroness against in-law problems, toothaches, hospitals, nursing homes, and bakers.

St. Elizabeth, pray for us.
