Saints of the Week

December 21

St. Peter Canisius, priest and doctor

Peter Canisius, born in 1521 in Holland, became a Jesuit priest and lived most of his life in Germany. He lived and worked in the tumultuous 16th Century, sparking the Counter Reformation. Peter was a writer, catechist, preacher, confessor, missionary, papal delegate, founder of colleges and seminaries. He wrote a famous "Little catechism" to teach the faith. Peter Canisius died in a humble assignment in 1597 and was canonized a saint in 1925.

December 23

St John of Kanty, priest

John Wacienga was born in 1390 at Kanty, near Cracow in Poland. He studied and spent his life at the newly-founded University of Cracow. During years of devastation he was outstanding for charity to the poor, pastoral care and sound theological teaching. John made one pilgrimage to the Holy Land and four to Rome. He died at age 83 on the Vigil of Christmas, and was canonized a saint in 1767.

Pro-Life Corner:

Herod massacred the Holy Innocents because he feared that one of those weak, helpless, innocent children might be the Christ. His was the fear of a tyrant totally consumed with ambition and evil. We have our own modern day Herod: 'abortion on demand'. And we now have countless numbers of Holy Innocents!
