A reflection from the Pastor

The reading of our Lord's Passion invites us to relive those last hours of his earthly journey – amidst the cries, the jaunts, the insults, the tears – so that we can die to our sins which he has already overcome by His Cross. This deep and abiding love for Jesus will help us to witness the Resurrection to come. As the events of this week unfold – take a moment to let them happen to you again – as you listen to the gospel proclaimed, put yourself in the scene and ask how you can become a better member of Christ's body, and then renew your faith in Him.

Thank you to all who assisted in ironing the priest vestments for the Chrism Mass on Tuesday. Great job!

Please consider giving generously to the Holy Thursday collection for our seminarians in formation. Attached to the bulletin today is an offering envelope in case you cannot attend.

Please remember to turn in your R.S.V.P. for the May 1 lunch in honor of the 50th anniversary of the dedication of the church. The deadline for R.S.V.P. is April 15th.

May you have a blessed holy week.

Holy Week – March 29 – April 2

During Holy Week we walk with Jesus, we suffer with him, and finally, we rise again, new creatures. We don't just watch in these days, we participate in them so that we might strive to be more like Christ.

Monday of Holy Week

- Gospel reading at Mass on this day: The Anointing at Bethany. Mary of Bethany, sister of Martha and Lazarus, anoints Jesus, a sign of his suffering and death and his identity as the Messiah and Chosen One – the Christ.
- As Jesus prepares for the sacrifice ahead, we too are invited to prepare more deeply.

Tuesday of Holy Week

In our diocese, the Chrism Mass takes place, which is normally on the morning of Holy Thursday.

The Chrism Mass

This a diocesan wide celebration, in which all the priests gather with the bishop to renew their priestly dedication. The three different oils to be used in the sacraments are bless/consecrated by the bishop and given to the pastors:

Oil of the Sick, Oil of Catechumens are blessed. The Sacred Chrism is consecrated; it is used in baptisms, confirmations, and Holy Orders.

Wednesday of Holy Week

The gospel recounts Jesus' instructions on the need of the disciples to prepare a place for the Last Supper. Today is a good time to center and prepare our own "inner" rooms for the next days.

Sacred Triduum

The three days that changed the world – the liturgies from Holy Thursday evening through the evening of Easter Sunday. We share in the mystery of Christ's life, death, and resurrection, and we meet and follow.

Holy Thursday

The single evening Mass recalls Jesus institution of the Eucharist and includes the Mandatum ceremony of the washing of feet. This comes from John 13:34 in which Jesus encourages the disciples to wash one another's feet out of love. The celebration ends with a procession to reserve the Eucharist for adoration for a suitable time (8 – 10 p.m.).

Good Friday

The service of the Lord's Passion recalls how Jesus died for us on the cross. Mass is not celebrated on this day, but at 3:00 a service of the Passion and Communion is held. The readings are drawn from Isaiah, Hebrews, and John's Gospel Passion account. The cross is venerated by all. In our parish, the stations of the cross is walked in the morning from Placedo to St. Patrick's as a sign of our willingness to enter more fully into the passion of our Lord. Spending time in prayer between the hours of noon and three o'clock is a good way of joining yourself to Jesus' suffering. It is a day of fast and abstinence from meat in the church.
