

A reflection from the Pastor

Thank you to all who made the Spring Barbecue a success. All who gave of their time to lend a hand in helping to sustain the needs of the parish. On the reverse side of this bulletin is a copy of the income and expense statement.

"I give you a new commandment, love one another," Jesus in today's gospel. Jesus' death was approaching, Judas had just betrayed him, Peter was about to deny him three times – and Jesus tells them – love one another. He had already taught them about loving God, and now they were to love one another. In the midst of this world's trials and tribulations, Jesus' words still command from us a selfless response in love. Jesus demonstrated the perfect act of loving one another in his willingness to die on the cross for our sins. From the cross Jesus poured out blood and water and opened for us the Sacramental life of the Church. What an awesome gift we have in the Sacrament of Penance! We are able to meet Jesus face to face and once again promise that we are going to go out – free from sin and live the new commandment to love one another.

Today as our children make their first Holy Communion, let us pray that the gift of the Eucharist will give them the presence of Jesus to love one another. As they eat his body and drink his blood for the first time, their soul begins to expand and they begin to walk as Jesus here on earth. Then from this holy altar, dedicated fifty years ago this weekend, their joys and fears, hopes and dreams will become realities as they live out Jesus' command to love one another.

Have a blessed week, Fr. Ty
