Pro-life Corner

Why is our culture of death afraid to talk about death? Many people like to watch slasher movies, video games and movies that promote violence, but talk about the death of a baby through abortion and people are shocked! They say that's violent, I don't care to hear about it. As a nation we are sticking our head in the sands of apathy. Please, God, motivate us to speak out for your unborn babies.

Saints of the Week

October 18 ST. Luke, evangelist

Born of a gentile family in Antioch, Luke was a cultured man, a medical doctor, a convert to Christ. An associate of the Apostle Paul, Luke authored the third Gospel and Acts of the Apostle. These works give us much valuable information about Christ and the early church.

October 19 - Sts. Isaac Jogues and John De Brebeuf, priest and martyrs and Companions, martyrs

The North American soil is hallowed by the blood of these unbelievably heroic martyrs. There were eight – all of French origin, all working in the mission area known as New France. Six were Jesuit priests and two were unpaid lay helpers. All were martyred from 1624 to 1649 – five of them in present Canada and three near Auriesville N.Y. The priest Isaac Jogues had been tortured and mutilated but courageously returned to the missions. Jogues and La Lande, priest and layman were tomahawked On October 18 and 19, 1646 by a Mohawk war party. They were canonized as saints in 1930.
