Saints of the Week

October 28 Sts. Simon and Jude, apostles

Today we celebrate the feast of two apostles. The name Simon is eleventh on the list of the Twelve. It is known that Simon came from Cana and was called Zealot – perhaps a member of the activist political party against Roman occupation of Judea. The apostle Jude, called Thaddaeus, spoke with Jesus during the Last Supper (Jn 14:22). In lists of the Apostles these two are always together.

Family Faith Thoughts

Rate your answers to these questions with your family. How well does our family recognize the sacredness of a family meal and discover God in the ordinary moments of family and parish life?

Never Very Little Somewhat Fairly Often All the Time

1. Eating dinner together is a priority in our family schedule.
2. Being Catholic is a significant part of our family identity.
3. We participate in social and community events at our parish (outside of Mass).
4. Religious art, images, and Bibles can be found throughout our home.

Pro-life Corner

Abortion is the most unregulated industry in America... Veterinary clinics and hair salons have more regulations than most abortion clinics. More and more cases are coming forward of deceptive practices, manipulative pressures, unsanitary conditions, injuries, and maternal deaths in abortion clinics. Speak out and stop this hideous assault against women and their babies.
