Saints of the Week

October 4 – St. Francis of Assisi – Called the most Christ like person since Christ, today's remarkable saint was born of a wealthy family in Assisi Italy. Gifted with a joyful spirit, Francis renounced his father's wealth to become the Little Poor Man of Assisi. An extraordinary person, he attracted followers (the Franciscans) and by evangelical poverty strengthened the Church. The joyous, poor, simple Franciscan spirit still strengthens the Church. Receiving the stigmata towards the end of life, Francis the deacon died on October 3, 1227. His life says much to modern men and women.

October 6 – St. Bruno, Priest

Bruno was born at Cologne in Germany and was well educated. He taught theology for over 25 years. Yearning for a solitary life of penance and contemplation, he joined several companions in a solitary quasi-community life. Bruno settled in the Chartreuse Alps and there founded a contemplative monastic Order, the Carthusians. Called to Rome by the Pope, he ended life in a hermitage of Calabria. Bruno was canonized a saint in 1514.

October 7 – Our Lady of the Rosary

Today's memorial recalls the crucial victory of Christian Europe over the Moslems at the naval battle of Lepanto – October 7, 1571. The victory was attributed to the Blessed Mother, invoked through the rosary Prayer. This memorial however is not of a past event; it reminds us of the meditation on the mysteries of Christ with the help of Mary. Such meditation is connected with the incarnation, suffering and glories Resurrection of the Son of God.
