Upcoming Events:

May 8th - First Communion
Mother's Day

May 22nd - Confirmation

April 25
St. Mark,
Evangelist

Mark, or John Mark, was intimately associated with the development of the young Church. Born in Jerusalem, he accompanied Barnabas, Paul and Peter in their apostolic labors. Mark was a helper to the stronger personalities. His Gospel seems to reflect Peter's preaching. But the direct, concrete, colorful style expresses Mark himself. Considered founder of the Church of Alexandria in Egypt, Mark is specially honored by the Coptic Christians of that country.

April 28,
St. Peter Chanel,
Priest and Martyr

The universal Church today honors the first martyr of Oceania-the vast region of the islands of the Pacific. Born (1803) in France, Peter Chanel became a diocesan priest. He served selflessly as an assistant pastor, pastor and seminary rector. In 1836 he joined the newly-formed Society of Mary and was sent to Oceania. Pagan practices and Protestant opposition made his work discouraging, but he found courage in his morning Mass. Finally he converted the son of the King of Fotuna in Polynesia. For that conversion he was martyred in 1841.

April 29,
St. Catherine of Siena,
Virgin and Doctor

The 23rd child of hard-working parents, Catherine was born in Siena, Italy, in 1347. She showed early signs of unusual sanctity, joined the Third Order of Dominicans and became spiritual guide to many. Catherine influenced public affairs. She encouraged the Pope to leave Avignon in 1377 and return to Rome. She dictated profound spiritual writings, died in 1380, and in 1970 was declared a Doctor of the Church.
