August 19th,
St. John Eudes,
Priest

Today's saint, born in France (1601), had an outstanding education before ordination as an Oratorian priest. After many years of effective mission preaching, he concluded that the best way to bring Christ to the poor people was to form educated, zealous priests. So John Eudes founded four seminaries, established the Congregation of Jesus and of Mary (the Eudists) to direct seminaries, started the Institute of Our Lady of Charity to care for wayward girls, and fostered the Sacred Heart devotion. He died in 1680.

August 21st,
St. Pius X,
Pope

Born near Venice in 1835, Giuseppe Sarto became successively priest, bishop of Mantua, Patriarch of Venice, and, in 1903, Pope. Humble and strong, he carried these increasingly heavy responsibilities with simplicity, piety and balance. He authorized First Holy Communion at the age of reason and strongly defended the Church against Modernism. Pius X died as World War 1 started, in 1914, and was canonized a saint in 1954.

Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

Pro-Life Corner:

August 21- Day after day, we have to each resolve to pray more, fast more, say more, do more, boycott more and witness more in our fight to save the unborn from abortion, and the sick and the elderly from euthanasia. With God's help we will win this battle. Rejoice. We're on His side.
