Son of Zebedee and brother of John the Evangelist-Apostle, today's saint was born at Bethsaida in Galilee. He was present at the special miracles worked by the Lord. The first apostle to die, James was martyred by Herod Agrippa 1 in 43 or 44 (Acts 12:2). Known as James the Greater because of his status, he has been specially honored since the ninth century at Compostella in Spain. From this famous place of pilgrimage his cult was carried especially to Latin America – where many cities are named Santiago.

Pro-Life Corner:

July 31- "We tried to avoid the women seeing the fetus. They always wanted to know the sex, but we lied and said it was too early to tell. It's better for the women to think of the fetus as an it". (Words of an abortion clinic worker) The lies go on.

*The hand of the Lord feeds us;
he answers all our needs.*
