Corpus Christi Poem

“No longer bread, no longer wine,
His body and His blood
Through sacrifice are mine.
Without such nourishment
My soul would be
A wasting headland
Above a raging sea,
A rootless acreage
With neither leaf nor tree.”

Ambrose

June 28th
St. Cyril of Alexandria,
Bishop and Doctor

Cyril of Alexandria is connected with the Council of Ephesus (431) and the struggle against the Nestorian heresy. Nestorius refused to give to Mary the title Mother of God. Cyril, by then Bishop in his native city for 20 years, battled impetuously against Nestorianism and presided over the Council which declared Mary to be Mother of God. Cyril died in 444.

June 29th ,
St. Peter and Paul,
Apostles

The Lord built His Church on the foundation of the Apostles. Today we celebrate solemnly the two greatest Apostles, Peter and Paul. Their role in salvation history was of basic importance. Their tombs and basilicas are in Rome.

Pro-Life Corner:

July 3- “The first priority, the fundamental priority of the common good is protecting and supporting human life for without life, there is no common good” Bishop Arthur J. Serratelli How can our Declaration state that all have the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness when the state sponsors the killing of the unborn?

I will praise your name
forever, my king and my God.
