April 2
St. Francis of Paola, hermit

Today's saint was born (1416) in Paola of Calabria, in the rugged southern part of Italy. At an early age Francis became a hermit. The more he left society, the more people came to see his sanctity and miracles. A community developed around him: the Order of the Littlest Ones. The Pope asked Francis to come to Rome, and later to go to France, to teach others the ways and example of holiness. An ambassador of spirituality, Francis died in France on this date, Good Friday, in 1507. He was canonized a saint in 1519.

Pro-Life Corner:

April 3- Abortion is dangerous. The abortion industry is one of the least regulated medical fields and usually attracts the least qualified doctors. Women are often being taken from abortion killing centers in ambulances because of botched abortions and incompetent medical practices; many of them die. This fact is suppressed in the media.
