March 7
Sts. Perpetua and Felicity, martyrs

The martyrdom of these women was a dramatic episode in early Church history. Perpetua was a recently baptized, 22 year old noble woman with a small child. Felicity, a slave, was expecting a child. With shining courage, hand in hand, they faced death from wild beasts and the sword. This happened at Carthage in North Africa, on this date in 203.

March 9
St. Frances of Rome, religious

Today's heroine was Rome's first great woman saint in a thousand years. Born in Rome in 1384, Frances lived in the Trastevere section. She was married at an early age and bore three children, of whom two died in infancy. Each day after doing the housework she visited churches and cared for the poor. During times of great calamity and suffering she was a tower of strength to her husband. After his death, she founded a Benedictine Oblate Congregation in 1425. Devoted to her guardian angel, Frances died in 1440.

Pro-Life Corner:

March 13- No matter how much one can recite the Bible, no matter if we tithe, no matter how often we pray, our faith is truly dead if we don't put our faith into action. Once a mother enters an abortuary, that child is lost forever. Join in the culture of life today.
