18 Days!

November 15th,
St. Albert the Great,
Bishop and Doctor

From 1245 to 1248 a Bavarian Dominican who had studied at Padua, Albert, taught at Paris. His most attentive student concerning Aristotelian philosophy was Thomas Aquinas of the same Dominican Order. Albert went to Cologne – followed by Thomas. Albert became Provincial and then Bishop of Ratisbon-but after two years returned to teaching. A profound and holy professor, he died at Cologne in 1280, aged over 70. Albert was canonized a saint in 1931. A doctor-teacher of the Church, he is patron of scientists and philosophers.

November 17th,
St. Elizabeth of Hungary,
Religious

Born in Hungary in 1207, Elizabeth at 14 was married to Ludwig IV of Thuringia. For the intense Elizabeth it was a happy marriage. The family tried to follow the ideals of Francis of Assisi, then living. As she was expecting their third child Ludwig died in the Crusades. Elizabeth became a Franciscan tertiary, founded a hospital in honor of St. Francis, and gave herself totally to care for the poor. She died in 1231, age only 24, at Marburg. St. Elizabeth is Patroness of the Franciscan Third Order and of Catholic charities.

Pro-Life Corner:

November 20- The National Vietnam Memorial in Washington DC is a shiny black wall that stretches 492 feet and lists the names of the 58,022 known Americans killed in that war. If such a wall listed the names of the 52,000,000 babies who were killed by abortion since 1973, the wall would be 83 miles long! The casualties of our wars put together are fewer than the casualties from abortion in a single year.

Blessed are those who fear the Lord.
