October 18th,
St. Luke,
Evangelist

October 19th,
St. Paul of the Cross,
Priest

Born of a gentile family in Antioch, Luke was a cultured man, a medical doctor, a convert to Christ. An associate of the Apostle Paul, Luke authored the third Gospel and Acts of the Apostles. These works give us much valuable information about Christ and the early Church.

Paul Francis Danei (1694-1775) was born in Italy, labored in commerce and military service, and then dedicated his life to meditating on the mystery of Christ's cross and to evangelizing the countryside. In 1720 he became a solitary-praying several hours a day, practicing mortification, planning a religious community. Ordained a priest, he preached effectively, saw the Passionist rule approved by the Holy See in 1741 and adopted the name of the Paul of the Cross. The Passionists developed steadily. An order of women was begun in 1771. On October 18, 1775, he died in Rome, at the ancient Basilica of Sts. John and Paul. Paul of the Cross was canonized a saint in 1867. The ideals and work of the Passionist Orders continue to advance the Church.

Pro-Life Corner:

October 23- A statement from ex-abortionist Dr. Bernard Nathanson,: "We fed the public a line of deceit, dishonesty, a fabrication of statistics and figures. We sensationalized the effects of illegal abortions, and fabricated polls which indicated that 85 percent of the public favored unrestricted abortion, when we knew it was only 5 percent. We unashamedly lied, and yet our statements were quoted [by the media] as though they had been written in law."
