St. John Chrysostom,
Bishop

Born at Antioch around 349, today's saint received an excellent education, led an ascetical life, as a priest preached effectively. Elected Bishop and Patriarch of Constantinople in 397, John "of the Golden Tongue" was a thorough, dedicated pastor of his flock. From hatred of the imperial court and enemies he was twice exiled. In present day Turkey, on the road to exile again, he died of consumption on September 14, 407.

September 15th,
Our Lady of Sorrows,

On the day following the ancient feast of the Holy Cross we commemorate the compassion of Mary. We meditate on the reactions in the soul of Mary concerning the sufferings and death of Jesus Christ her Son. Simeon predicted that her heart would be transfixed with sorrows. So it was, as she stood under the cross of her son.
