Saints of the Week

August 28th,
St. Augustine,
Bishop and Doctor

The brilliant mind of Augustine continues to influence the Church. Born (354) in Africa, Augustine led a life of unsettled faith and morality until 387. Then in Milan he was baptized by St. Ambrose. Returning to Africa, Augustine led an ascetic life. Elected Bishop of Hippo, for 34 years he was a totally dedicated pastor. By sermons and writings he fought errors, explained the faith, and laid the foundations for much of Catholic social teaching and theology. Augustine died in 430 as the barbarians besieged Hippo and the Roman world was collapsing. Every educated Catholic should know Augustine's Confessions.

August 29th,
St. John the Baptist,
Martyr

John the Baptist, of such importance to Christ, has been specially honored through Christian history. Today we recall the Baptist's martyrdom-his beheading by Herod of Galilee. John was an ascetic and martyr, father of hermits, last of the prophets, forerunner of Christ.

$80.00 – Candle Money
$502.52 – Building Fund
$70.00 – CCD

Pro-Life Corner:

September 2 - "Abortion has been founded on lies and deception from the very beginning. All I did was lie about how I got pregnant...but my little lie grew and grew and became more horrible with each telling...With the help of willing media and the credibility of well-known columnists, the lie became known as the truth these past 39 years." We must end abortion and euthanasia. Our life depends upon it. Norma McCorvey- Jane Roe of Roe v Wade
