December 4th,
St. John Damascene,
Priest and Doctor

Born at Damascus around 675, John was active in business before becoming a monk. He lived in a Palestinian monastery near Jerusalem from 710 till his death in 749. A monk, priest and theologian, he defended the practice of having icons (pictures of saints). He is outstanding for his writings about the Blessed Mother.

December 6th,
St. Ambrose,
Bishop and Doctor

Son of a Roman, Ambrose (c. 339-397) became the ranking government official in Milan. Ambrose was studying Christianity when the people demanded him as their bishop. He received the sacraments and on this date was ordained bishop. Ambrose was an outstanding pastoral figure who taught unceasingly and who influenced Augustine.

Pro-Life Corner:

December 9th - We see documentaries about Adolph Hitler's hideous so-called "medical" experiments on human beings, but abortionists today are helping to do the same thing by killing babies and selling the body parts to pharmaceutical companies and universities for so-called "medical" experiments. As a nation we are no better than Hitler because we are still allowing abortion to continue.

Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous deeds.
