Pro-Life Corner:

February 19 - Evil acts such as rape and murder remain evil acts. They can never become good. Abortion is an evil act that can never become good. It is a common tactic to use rape and incest as a battering ram to break down opposition to abortion. Once exceptions were allowed for extreme cases, it became much easier to make exceptions for non-extreme cases. Then exceptions become the rule. We must never make exceptions that will subvert the moral law.

Saints of the Week

February 14th,
Sts. Cyril and Methodius,
Monk, Bishop

These brother saints are of great importance as links between the Eastern and Western Churches and as Apostles to the Slav nations. Born around 825 in Greece, they became Byzantine missionaries in Moravia, Bohemia and Bulgaria. Cyril died in Rome (869). Methodius achieved missionary success as papal legate to the Slav nations and died (885) in Czechoslovakia.

February 17th,
Seven Founders of the Order of Servites

The 13th Century in Italy saw many remarkable religious developments. Today's memorial recalls how seven businessmen (wool merchants) of Florence followed Christ so completely that they together left their city to live as monks in the nearby mountains. They founded the order of Servites of Mary. In 1888 they were canonized saints. On this date in 1310 the last of the seven, then over a century old, died.

Lord, heal my soul, for I have sinned against you.
