July 3rd,
St. Thomas,
Apostle

Thomas is known among the apostles especially for his unbelief. That unbelief vanished before the risen Christ. Thomas gave us the exclamation of Easter faith: "My Lord and my God!" Apart from the Gospels, nothing certain is known of his life and ministry. The Christians of Malabar (west coast of India) honor Thomas as founder of their Church. The Church of Syria takes its liturgy from St. Thomas and since 232 has honored him on this date.

July 5th,
St. Anthony Zaccaria,
Priest

Born at Cremona in north Italy in 1502, today's saint practiced as a medical doctor before priestly ordination in 1528. Even before the Council of Trent he also had a dream of priests who would be neither monks nor mendicants, but living under a rule of life with vows. He founded such a Congregation at Milan. Because they lived first at the Church of St. Barnabas, these religious priests were referred to as the Barnabites. Anthony died prematurely in 1539. The order did much to inspire clergy and evangelize the people.

Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

Pro-Life Corner:

July 1 - The chief purpose of government is to protect life. Abandon that and you have abandoned all. Our country's chief purpose has been abandoned with the onset of decriminalized abortion and the use of tax dollars to pay for them.
