Saints of the Week

July 21st,
St. Lawrence of Brindisi,
Priest and Doctor

Baptized Julius Caesar Russo at Brindisi in Italy, today's saint was a true general for God. In 1575, age 16, he entered the Capuchins and dedicated his many talents to the Church of that Reformation century. A born orator, Fra Lawrence studied to become cultured and conversant in French, German, Greek, Syriac and Hebrew. As a worker in the Catholic Renewal he preached throughout all central Europe, campaigned against the Turks in Hungary, was an able diplomat. A true son of St. Francis, he died at Lisbon in simple goodness (1619) and was canonized a saint in 1881.

July 22nd,
St. Mary Magdalene

Mary of Magdala, from whom Jesus cast seven demons (Mk 16:9), was among the women who assisted Christ and the apostles as they traveled and preached the Good News. This Mary was present with the Lord's Mother and John at the foot of the cross when the other apostles fled. She helped bury the Lord's body, went to complete the burial on Easter morning and first saw the risen Master. The Byzantine Liturgy says Jesus made Mary Magdalene “the apostle to the Apostles.”

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
