March 17th,
St. Patrick,
Bishop

Patrick was the great apostle of Ireland. This small island has exported its people and Catholic faith throughout the world – to America and Australia – and has heavily influenced the history of the Church. The story of Patrick begins Irish history but is not known in detail. Born around 385 in Great Britain, this child of a permanent deacon was kidnapped by Irish pirates. He later escaped, became a priest and returned to evangelize the pagan Irish. This Patrick did with much prayer and austerity. As Bishop he organized well the Church in Ireland. He died around 461 in the "Island of Saints" which later came to know a thousand years of persecution.

March 18th,
St. Cyril of Jerusalem,
Bishop and Doctor

Born of Christian parents in 315, Cyril became bishop of Jerusalem around 350 and died in 386 or 387. It was a time when the Jerusalem Church, with its memorials of Christ, shone splendidly. There were many problems with the Arian heresy, and Cyril was forced three times into exile. He wrote effectively to explain the divinity of Christ and other doctrines of our faith.

Pro-Life Corner:

March 25 - When the record of our life is set down, there are three pairs of eyes who see it in a different light. There is the life as I see it, as others see it, and as God sees it. While there is still time in our life to do the will of God, we must protect all life, from conception to natural death.
