Parish News

Thursday, Nov. 15th – Knights of Columbus meeting at 7:00 p.m. in the Heritage Building.

This year we will once again encourage all parishioners to participate in The Giving Tree project. The tree will be located at the front of the altar by the St. Joseph statue on November 17th and 18th. Your participation will help bring Christmas spirit and joy to a family in need. Please return the wrapped gifts (with tags securely attached) no later than Sunday, December 16th to our parish office. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Dear Parishioners,

Please join us the weekend of November 17th, 2012 to hear Rev. Luis J. Runde speak at all the services about a ministry providing relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. Father Runde will share what he has witnessed about Food For the Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another. Please join us next weekend to welcome Father Runde.

November 12th,
St. Josephat,
Bishop and Martyr

Today's saint is a martyr and patron for reunion of the Greek and Latin Churches. Born in Poland in 1580 as an Orthodox, he became a Catholic and then a monk and priest of the Order of St. Basil. He became archimandrite and later Archbishop of Poloz. A zealous bishop and worker for Christian unity, in 1623 Josaphat was assassinated by enemies while making a pastoral visitation. He was canonized a saint in 1867.

November 16th,
St. Margaret of Scotland

Today's saint was born in Hungary around 1046 while her father was in political exile from William the Conqueror. The family returned to England and then Scotland, where Margaret married King Malcolm in 1070. Margaret was an ideal queen-devoted to her illiterate husband and eight children, concerned for charity and religion, helping the poor people of Scotland. She died at Edinburgh in 1093, four days after Malcolm had been killed.

$86.00 – Candle Money
$590.00 – Building Fund

Pro-Life Corner:

November 18th - Abortion is not just a "private sin"; it is one which the world calls "choice" or a right. Abortion affects everyone alive today. Just as one prayer affects an entire community, the grave sin of abortion affects not just the parents of that innocent child, nor the abortionists and clinic staff, but also our communities, nation and world.

You are my inheritance, O Lord.
