October 23rd,
St. John of Capistrano,
Priest

Today's saint (1386-1456) had a remarkable life. Born in Capistrano (Abruzzi) Italy, he was a lawyer and judge. At age 30 he joined the Franciscans. Trained by St. Bernardine of Siena, John of Capistrano preached effectively throughout Italy. Various Popes sent him to preach – in France, Germany, Austria, Poland. He reformed masteries, opposed the Hussites, preached in Hungary against the Turks. John of Capistrano, worn out by superhuman efforts, died in Croatia, and was canonized a saint in 1690.

October 24th,
St. Anthony Claret,
Bishop

Today's saint had a difficult, travel-filled life. Born in Spain (1870), he worked as a weaver before ordination in 1835. He preached in Spain and the Canary Isles and founded the Missionary Institute of Sons of the Immaculate Heart of Mary (the Claretians). He became Archbishop of Santiago in Cuba (1850-1857) and Confessor to the Queen of Spain (1857-1867). Archbishop Anthony Claret was deeply interested in the Catholic Press and the First Vatican Council. Driven into exile in France, he died peacefully-after many trials and revolutions-in 1870. He was canonized a saint in 1950.

Pro-Life Corner:

October 28 - We are living in a "culture of death" where the pre-born, elderly, and infirm are seen as disposable, and the pro-death forces profit from their death. It's difficult to understand, but that's what is happening in America. Please pray and work to end abortion and euthanasia.
