March 23rd,
St. Turibius de
Mongrovejo,
Bishop

Today's saint was a heroic, hard-working bishop who did much to organize the Church in Latin America. Born in Spain in 1538, he was named Archbishop of Lima in 1581. There were then enormous problems in the Latin American Missions: religious, social, political problems. He began a systematic visitation of his huge diocese, to correct abuses and to build up the faith. He used to say: "Jesus Christ did not say 'I am the custom,' but 'I am the Truth.'" He died on a visitation in 1606 and was canonized a saint in 1726.

Pro-Life Corner:

March 24th - When the record of our life is set down, there are three pairs of eyes who see it in a different light. There is the life as I see it, as others see it, and as God sees it. While there is still time in our life to do the will of God, we must protect all life, from conception to natural death.

The Lord has done great things for us, we are filled with joy.
