May 12th,
Sts. Nereus and
Achilleus,
Martyr

The persecution of Diocletian aimed at eliminating Christianity first from the Roman Army. Nereus and Achilleus were recently baptized soldiers. In 304 they died courageously for Christ. Their churches have inspired followers of Christ—those living in Rome and coming on pilgrimage.

May 12th,
St. Pancras,
Martyr

Pancras (or Pancratius) underwent martyrdom during the same persecution of Diocletian, perhaps on the same day and year (304) as Nereus and Achilleus. Pancras, a lad of only 14 years, courageously sacrificed his young life for Jesus Christ. Similar to Agnes, he has been across the centuries an inspiration to youthful followers of Christ.

May 5th - Mothers are closer to God the Creator than any other human creature. God joins forces with mothers in performing this act of creation. What on God's earth is more glorious than to be a mother? Cardinal Joseph Mindszenty

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord.
