November 10th,
St. Leo The Great,
Pope and Doctor

Elected Pope in 440 and deceased in 461, Leo I shepherded the Church in most difficult times. He had to fight barbarians from without and heretics from within. Leo had to confront and turn back Attila the Hun (452), witness helplessly the sack of Rome by the Vandals (455), and at all times care for the souls and bodies of his people. Fittingly he has been called Pope Leo the Great.

November 11th,
St. Martin of Tours,
Bishop

Today's saint has become a legend. A Hungarian raised in Italy, an unwilling soldier converted to Christ, Martin gave away his cloak and became a monk in Gaul. Later he founded the first monastery in the West. In 372 this rugged, unprepossessing person became bishop of Tours. His great work was to convert the pagan countryside. Then only the cities held Christians. He organized a mission approach, founded more monasteries, in a sense made France Catholic. Martin died in 397.

Pro-Life Corner:

November 17th - Abortion is not just a "private sin"; it is one which the world calls "choice" or a right. Abortion affects everyone alive today. Just as one prayer affects an entire community, the grave sin of abortion affects not just the parents of that innocent child, nor the abortionists and clinic staff, but also our communities, nation and world.

Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.
