November 4th,
St. Charles Borromeo,
Bishop

Charles Borromeo (1538-1584), of the wealthy Borromeo family, was born near Lago Maggiore in north Italy. A lawyer, he was summoned to Rome by his uncle, Pius IV, and at age 22 was named a Cardinal in charge of Church affairs. Charles worked to complete the Council of Trent, and then in 1563 was ordained and named Archbishop of Milan. There he was the ideal shepherd-visiting his people, establishing the first seminaries, correcting abuses, dedicating self in total service. His influence was great. He died at age 46, on November 3, and is buried in the Cathedral of Milan. Charles Borromeo was canonized a saint 1610.

November 10th,
St. Leo the Great,
Pope and Doctor

Elected Pope in 440 and deceased in 461, Leo I shepherded the Church in most difficult times. He had to fight barbarians from without and heretics from within. Leo had to confront and turn back Attila the Hun (452), witness helplessly the sack of Rome by the Vandals (455), and at all times care for the souls and bodies of his people. Fittingly he has been called Pope Leo the Great.

Pro-Life Corner:

November 11th - Abortion is a terrible form of murder, though decriminalized, for the simple reason that the victim is an innocent and defenseless baby in the womb and cannot plead for his/her life, cannot run, cannot reason with his/her parents who are the very same ones who are paying an assassin to end the life of their own flesh and blood.

I will praise your name forever my King and my God.
