October 7th,
Our Lady of the Rosary

Today’s memorial recalls the crucial victory of Christian Europe over the Moslems at the naval battle of Lepanto-October 7, 1571. The victory was attributed to the Blessed Mother, invoked through the Rosary prayer. This memorial however is not of a past event. It reminds us of meditation on the mysteries of Christ with the help of Mary. Such meditation is connected with the incarnation, sufferings and glorious Resurrection of the Son of God.

October 9th,
St. John Leonardi,
Priest

Today’s saint (1541-1609), born in Tuscany of Italy, became an assistant pharmacist. A priest at age 30, he formed a religious community to teach Catholic doctrine to youths and adults in confused Reformation times. Internal troubles drove him to Rome, to the friendship and guidance of St. Philip Neri. John Leonardi laid the foundations for the influential Seminary for the Propagation of the Faith in Rome. Death came after helping plague victims. He was canonized a saint in 1938.

Pro-Life Corner:

October 13th - Are you aware that the father of an unborn baby has no rights; the father of an unborn child cannot protect his baby from abortion? There have been cases when a father has been threatened with arrest for trying to save his child from abortion; if a mother decides to have an abortion, he is not allowed to be a part of this decision.

*If today you hear his voice,
harden not your hearts.*
