October 1st,
St. Theresa of the Child
Jesus,
Virgin

Today's saint is the popular "Little Flower of Jesus" (1873-1897). Marie Theresa Martin, devout from childhood, by special permission entered the cloistered Carmelites of Lisieux in France at age 15. She developed a spiritual approach of striving for perfection by being a child of God. At age 24 she died in profoundly spiritual fashion. Her autobiography, The Story of a Soul, helped to make her popular in the following years. She was canonized a saint in 1925.

October 6th,
St. Bruno,
Priest

Bruno (c. 1030-1100), born at Cologne in Germany and well educated, taught theology for over 25 years. Yearning for a solitary life of penance and contemplation, he joined several companions in a solitary quasi-community life. Bruno settled in the Chartreuse Alps and there founded a contemplative monastic Order, the Carthusians. Called to Rome by the Pope, he ended life in a hermitage of Calabria (south Italy.) Bruno was canonized a saint in 1514.

Pro-Life Corner:

October 6th - Terror in the womb gives birth to terror in the world. Until we stop abortion, there is no place in America that is safe; there is nowhere to hide. Terror in the womb produces terror in the world.

Praise the Lord, my soul!
