July 23rd,
St. Bridget,
Religious

Bridget Persson Gudmarsson belonged by birth (1303) and marriage (1316) to high Swedish society. A devoted wife and mother of eight children, she with her husband Ulf led a life concerned for their family, their Catholic Church and their community. After his death in 1344, Bridget began to receive her noted revelations about the Passion of Jesus Christ and current conditions in the Church and in Europe. In 1350 Bridget came to Rome for the Holy Year, lived there in poverty and prayer, and died in 1373. Her plan for the Order of the Holy Savior was carried out by Bridget's second oldest daughter, St. Catherine of Sweden. The order is still known as the Bridgettines.
