"And why do you worry about clothes? See how the flowers of the field grow. They do not labor or spin." Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was dressed like one of these. "If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith?" So do not worry, saying, "What shall we eat?" or "What shall we drink?" or "What shall we wear?"

March 7th,
STS. Perpetua and Felicity,
Martyrs

The martyrdom of these women was a dramatic episode in early Church history. Perpetua was a recently baptized, 22-year-old noble woman with a small child. Felicity, a slave, was expecting a child. With shining courage, hand in hand, they faced death from wild beasts and the sword. This happened at Carthage in North Africa, on this date in 203.

March 8th,
St. John of God,
Religious

John Cidade was born in Portugal in 1495, shortly after Columbus discovered America. He led an adventuresome youth in Spain, and at age 44 was converted by a sermon. He dedicated himself totally to the care of the miserable, abandoned ones of society. A mysterious child gave him the name "John of God." His hospital work grew so much that he started the Order of Brothers Hospitallers of St. John of God. John died in 1550 and was canonized a saint in 1690.

Pro-Life Corner:

March 9th - In God's plan, every man is born to seek self-fulfillment, for every human life is called to some task by God. At birth a human being possesses certain aptitudes and abilities in germinal form, and these qualities are to be cultivated so that they many bear fruit. By developing these traits through formal education of personal effort, the individual works his way toward the goal set for him by the Creator. Pope Paul VI

Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned.
